

An arithmetic theta lift

S. Kudla

Abstract

A celebrated result of Waldspurger asserts that the nonvanishing of the theta lift from $Mp(2)$ to $PGL(2)$ or PB^* is controlled by a combination of local obstructions and the central value of a Hecke L -function. In this lecture we will explain a parallel for an arithmetic theta lift of where the central value is replaced by the central derivative.